#GIVINGTUESDAYNOW

Your gift will be matched – dollar for dollar – to help animals like Olive and Onion get the second chances they deserve!

Olive and Onion came to HSSC right when Shelter in Place orders went into effect. We were able to give them the medical care and protection they needed to have happy, healthy lives ahead. Then, we were able to safely adopt them into homes with families who will love them forever!

We hope that you'll join our compassionate benefactors for this special online day of giving. Your gift will go twice as far to provide ongoing shelter, food and medical care for the animals like Olive and Onion who will need us in the weeks ahead – helping us to ensure that homeless animals have uninterrupted care during the coronavirus emergency.
