

Humane Society of Sonoma County Job Description

Job Title:	Animal Care, Adoptions and Volunteer Coordinator - Healdsburg	Location:	Healdsburg
Department:	Healdsburg Center	Hours:	Variable
FLSA Classification:	FT non-exempt Salary range: $17-19 DOE	Reports To:	Healdsburg Ctr Manager

In this very versatile position, the Animal Care, Adoptions and Volunteer Coordinator - Healdsburg helps ensure the proper care and treatment for animals when they arrive in our shelter, monitors and cares for animals during their stay, and facilitates happy adoptions for them when they leave! Responsibilities include, but not limited to, ensuring quality customer service, delivering treatments, vaccines, microchips to animals, cleaning and feeding the shelter animals and monitoring their wellbeing. Performs animal behavior observations and creates enrichment pathways. Leads dog skills training for volunteers. The successful candidate should have an understanding of animal science, medicine, and husbandry, including a basic knowledge of pharmacology and sufficient mathematical skills to ensure the administration of accurate drug and fluid dose.

This position provides volunteers training, scheduling and oversight for the Healdsburg campus in cooperation with Canine and Feline Behavior specialist guidelines, and with the overall welfare of animals and volunteers. This position can coordinate up to approximately 30-40 volunteers for weekly shifts, and larger outreach events. The volunteer coordinator is expected to promote organizational policies and procedures and be able to represent the philosophy and mission of the Humane Society of Sonoma County

In addition, the Animal Care, Adoptions and Volunteer Coordinator - Healdsburg will have exemplary customer service skills and the ability to match the individual needs of animals in the adoption program with well suited homes. This includes preparing animals for adoption, interacting with customers, screening potential adopters, explaining organization philosophies, policies and procedures, providing general information and preparing necessary paperwork. Additionally process animal surrenders, intake stray animals and transfers, assist with lost pets, process occasional cremation requests, promote training class and summer camp registrations and gratefully accept donations, both physical and monetary.

This candidate will also be responsible to work within HSSC animal care and record keeping protocols, stray intake guidelines and adoption counseling in cooperation with HBG center manager, staff and within HSSC guidelines/SOPs. Healdsburg staff are widely cross trained in a variety of skill sets.

The well rounded candidate has a blend of basic veterinary skills, animal care background, customer service skills and the ability to be an excellent communicator. Demonstrated compassion and empathy are required. We serve a diverse Sonoma County community and the ability to speak Spanish is highly desirable for this position.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Always be in position and prepared to work at the start of each scheduled shift.
- Promote a positive attitude among staff and assist other employees as needed. Show respect for team members, and animals (alive or deceased) at all times.
